German Papers Silenced

LOYD GEORGE DECLARES TIME IS NOT YET RIPE

British Continue Pressure
Against Important French
Coal City of Lens

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, June 29.—The entente powers must fight on until they have reached the end they set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge to civilization, declared David Lloyd George, the British premier, in a speech at Glasgow today.

To permit the war to come to an end a single hour sooner would be "the greatest disaster that ever befell mankind," he added.

These utterances possess notable significance at this moment, when there have been suggestions that the allied powers fighting Germany might agree to some revision of their previously-declared war aims, and at a time when hints have been coming out of Germany that next week's session of the German reichstag might witness some new statements on the subject of peace by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg.

Possible hint to the suggested German peace-movement is given by representations of mysterious political happenings within the German empire. The impression has been given that the expected developments would be of a dramatic nature and the press seems to have been completely muzzled, so far as discussion of political topics is concerned.

"No doubt Germany wants peace," declared the British premier in his speech, "but it is a peace which would give her economic and other control over the countries which she has invaded."

In the field of military operations the important development at present is the cumulative pressure which Sir Douglas Haig is applying to the German lines about the coal city and mine fields of Lens.

The operation now seems to have taken on a somewhat broader scope, suggesting that the British commander-in-chief is aiming at the far flanks of the Lens positions, in a wide encircling movement, while keeping up the push here and there on the immediate environments of the city.

Some six miles to the south in the neighborhood of Oppy the British last night captured a German post. (Continued on Page 11, Col. 3.)

POLICE ASKED WHY INVESTIGATION WAS DELAYED 24 HOURS

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, June 29.—The inquiry into the methods employed by the police in the investigation of the high school girl, murdered last February, was resumed today before Leonard M. Wallstein, commissioner of accounts, who is conducting Mayor Mitchell's investigation. Members of the police department, who were directly connected with the case, were under subpoena to testify concerning the department's handling of the case, which Commissioner Wallstein has described as "carelessness and negligence."

The question to be asked today's witnesses was, "Why was the investigation delayed 24 hours after the disappearance of the girl?" The question was asked today's witnesses was, "Why was the investigation delayed 24 hours after the disappearance of the girl?" COAL PRICES IN OHIO REDUCED $1 TO $5 TON BY OPERATORS' AGREEMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, June 29.—Both the American consumer, and the government are to get relief from the high cost of coal.

Beginning July 1, the price of soft coal at all mines east of the Mississippi is to be reduced $1 to $5 a ton to the consumer with a still further cut of 50 cents to the government.

An agreement to this effect has been reached between representatives of the coal interests and government officials following several days of conferences here.

HARDINGE BLAMED FOR KUT FIASCO

Lord Hardinge.

Lord Hardinge, viceroy of India at the outbreak of the war, is blamed by the British government for the fiasco in Mesopotamia which resulted in the capture of a British army by the Turks at Kut-el-Amara. There is a sharp demand on the part of the British public and press that Hardinge be removed from any position of authority which he may occupy at the foreign office.

WATERWORKS SEEKS CAUSE MUDDY WATER

The only drinking water that Newark has been getting during the past few days is due to the heavy and frequent rains and the fact that the filters used by the city have not been working properly. Service Director Christian said today that men have been working for two days to remedy the trouble and he hoped to succeed today.

Health Officer Knauss has frequently in the past advised the precaution of boiling the drinking water and from the condition of the water now it would be advisable to follow the doctor's advice.

GERMANY'S PRESS GAG NOW COMPLETE; CRISIS IS INFERRED

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, June 29.—Special dispatches from Rotterdam say it is inferred there, in view of the gagging of the German press that something drastic has happened or is about to happen in Germany. They quote the Frankfurter Zeitung as complaining that it was compelled to issue its political section until further notice without an independent expression of opinion and say the censorship now far exceeds anything previous. The press is declared to be completely muzzled.

AUTHORIZE NEW ARTILLERY UNIT IN OHIO MILITIA

Columbus, O., June 29.—According to reports from Washington early today, the war department will authorize the raising of another regiment of field artillery probably by the conversion of remaining cavalry units into artillery, and assurance is given that, if all units are completed and division strength reached, Ohio's guard will be recognized as a complete division. It is said the action is due largely to West Virginia's failure to meet requirements. It has been the plan to combine the Ohio and West Virginia organizations into a unit, whereas the new plan may result in the West Virginia militia being combined with that of some other state.

MAY MODIFY LAW TO PERMIT BEER AND LIGHT WINE

Delay In Passage of Food

FEAR PROHIBITION WILL

President Wants Authority

if Necessary

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, June 29.—A determined effort to modify the food bill now before the Senate so that it will be free from any prohibition provisions or at least so as to grant the president authority to permit the use of foodstuffs in the manufacture of beer and light wines, was begun today by the administration when President Wilson conferred on the question with Senator Martin, the majority leader, and Senator Garry, of Rhode Island.

Other conferences probably will follow quickly. The president was understood to feel that the instance of some senators on bone dry legislation endangered the early passage of the food bill, which he is anxious to see become law as soon as possible.

Administration leaders were said to feel that such legislation would be a disturbing factor in the economic life of the country and might lead to serious discontent among the workers, whose wholehearted support is necessary to win the war.

The president realizes that since prohibition has been made an issue in congress it is almost impossible to hope for the elimination of some sort of prohibitory provision from the food bill.

Although officials do not pretend to speak for him, it was understood that the president would be willing to accept a measure under which the use of foodstuffs and fruit in the manufacture of beverage alcohol was forbidden but with authority given him to permit their use in making beer and light wines. The importance of this issue has overreached many others in the president's mind and there were indications today that every effort would be used to have congress realize that the administration considers the danger of radical and sweeping legislation at this time.

President Wilson, according to Senator Pheasant of California, with whom he also conferred regarding prohibition legislation, desires that he have authority to stop the manufacture of malt and vinous liquors in case of emergency but does not believe immediate prohibition of (Continued on Page 11, Col. 4)

RUSS REPUBLIC TO RESULT FROM THE REVOLT, IS CLAIM

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, June 29.—A Russian republic was forecast today by members of the Russian mission in the clearest exposition yet received here of the enormous problems of reconstruction facing that country. Any other form of government, it was stated was practically impossible and would be in direct contradiction to the spirit and principles of the whole Russian upheaval.

The constituent assembly which is expected to open on September 30, will have in its hands the building of the whole new political structure of Russia. The provisional government which has ordered its call has not only given it absolute power as to Russia's future government but has entrusted it with all its own executive powers. Thus, when the new assembly meets the provisional government will pass out of existence and the executive power of the nation during the convention period probably will be delegated either to the government revived or to a special committee.

The assembly will decide finally on the form of government both federal and local with the fundamental laws, the rights of citizens and of nationalities and the methods of taxation and election. It is expected also to discuss fully the land question so as to destroy the abuse of large holdings by apportioning the land more equitably among those who till it, to arrange a new system of taxation with proportionally heavy taxes on the rich and a lifting of the enormous taxes from the poor and on general social relations between labor, capital, agriculture and the land.

The assembly will consist of not more than 800 members chosen on universal direct, secret, equal suffrage, including women. The new election machinery will have to be evolved for the whole of Russia. It was stated as the old system for the Duma election is entirely inadequate.

All details of this reconstruction go in the hands of a committee of six named about two months ago by the provisional government and expected to report shortly. This committee at present is working on the best method of selection of its members of the final assembly and on their actual number and their age.

RUSSIANS WILL APPRECIATE UNIT OF THE RED CROSS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Petrograd, June 29.—The news of the intention of the United States to send a Red Cross mission to Russia figures prominently in yesterday morning's papers. It evoked hearty appreciation in army and medical circles, especially at the headquarters of the Russian Red Cross.

A statement given to the Associated Press by Boris Ordin, president of the committee on supplies of the Red Cross, who reorganized this department after the Manchurian war, says:

"We express our gratitude to this new evidence of America's resolution to help us where we are weak. We hope American aid will come speedily and our organization promises to do everything possible to help the mission's work."

GERMANY SENDS GOLD TO HOLLAND TO KEEP UP CREDIT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Copenhagen, June 29.—For the first time during the war the weekly report of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a decrease in its gold reserve which this week is 76,000,000 marks below the preceding week. Increments for a long time have been steadily declining despite energetic propaganda appeals to surrender jewelry. The bank heretofore, however, has been able, though often by the scantiest of margins to avoid the humiliating acknowledgment that the growth (Continued on Page 11, Col. 4)

OHIO OPERATORS AGREE TO PRICES FIXED BY BOARD

State Council of Defense
Will Be Asked to Set
Coal Rate

MAY REDUCE PRICE IN MONTH GOV. COX SAYS

Hysteria In Buying Partly Responsible For Boost
In Prices

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, June 29.—It developed today that Ohio coal operators last Tuesday agreed to abide by maximum prices fixed by the state war defense council. A committee of five, composed of three operators and two other men, will make investigations, report to Governor Cox and then the Ohio branch of the National Council of Defense, Governor Cox's war cabinet, will determine the price. This is the effect of a statement given out by Governor Cox today, just before a session of a special committee of the defense council, coal operators, railroad officials and others, called for the purpose of starting an active campaign to lower coal prices and get a better supply.

All coal fields were represented in the meeting that started early this afternoon and railroad officials of the chief lines in the state were present. Whatever action is taken by Ohio will be supplemental to that by the federal government. Governor Cox said that he has hopes of seeing a lower price maximum in this state than is fixed in the federal agreement with operators and the federal agreement in itself will mean that Ohio prices cannot be higher than those elsewhere over the country. The figure discussed in Washington is $3.50 but it was indicated that the Ohio figure may be $3, which would mean $5 or $5.50 coal for domestic consumers.

Advantage of any action that may be taken should be felt by September 1, in the opinion of the governor and it was his suggestion that prices undoubtedly will be considerably lower in a month than they are now, consequently postponement in laying in a winter's supply was advised.

While today's conference is preliminary to real action, the governor made it impressive that the coal situation is "a big thing" for the war defense board to consider now. He pointed out that it is a determining factor in the making of many other prices, showing that manufacturing concerns were forced to ask more because of greater fuel expense; that public utilities face the same problem.

There are two big things that the state must get at in aiding in solving the fuel situation, the governor said. One is to endeavor to prevent shipment of coal from northeastern fields to Maine and the New England states—"an entirely too long a haul," the governor remarked. Another factor that is contributing in shortage is the unexplained failure to take advantage of river transportation facilities. The chief executive said hundreds of coal barges are idle along the Ohio River where they should be transporting coal not only from the Pennsylvania but from the Ohio fields.

"It has been found in many instances," said Governor Cox, "that coal brokers have been going to the mines and buying big shipments of coal and getting it out immediately. Profiting by the shortage that has existed throughout the state, they have been able to get almost their own price and the result has been that such prices in many cases, became 'standard' prices in certain localities."

"We have information that until June 1, coal mines were getting but 50 per cent of the time miners; that they are now working their men much steeper. It has been explained that the better condition was brought about by improvement in the coal situation."

"Another thing that has kept prices up, not alone in coal but in many food articles, especially flour, was hysteria in buying. Families bought flour by the barrel, or in even greater quantities a short time ago and they never had done so before. The result was a drain on the market, a rapid increase in prices, and an apparent shortage that made a terrible which carried with it the usual soaring of prices."

DUTCH CRUISER TO CONVOY SHIPS FROM AMERICA

An Atlantic Port, June 29.—A Dutch armored cruiser, the first warship flying the flag of Holland to come into this port for more than ten years, arrived here today. The warship will remain for several days.

Officers of the ship declined to disclose the mission of the vessel but it was reported that she is to act as a convoy for a number of Holland passenger and freight vessels now about ready to leave American ports.

NEWARK LANDS C. E. CONVENTION FOR NEXT SUMMER

The intensive campaign conducted by Newark and Licking county Christian Endeavor societies to bring the state convention to Newark in 1918 resulted in success when the convention at Hamilton today voted to meet in Newark next year.

As a result, several thousand young people from all parts of the state will gather in Newark in June for the state meeting.

Newark's campaign was well organized. A Ray Evans being at the head of the organization. Splendid co-operation from the Christian Endeavor societies of the various churches resulted in a "drive" which has not been equaled in any similar effort.

The fight to secure the meeting was carried to the convention city and even to the convention hall where the determined and enthusiastic demands of the Newark organization were such as could not be refused.

A telegram to The Advocate this afternoon from Miss Edna M. Alward announced that Newark had landed the convention.

PERSHING GREETED AS DESCENDANT OF ALSACE-LORRAINE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, June 29.—Major General Pershing yesterday received a delegation from the Alsace-Lorraine Republican committee. Referring to the American commander's Alsace ancestry the vice president, M. Stachling, told the general how proud they were that a descendant of their little country had come to fight for the triumph of their inalienable rights and the restoration to France of the lost provinces.

FARMERS DISCHARGE BOY SCOUTS WHEN POTATO PRICE DROPS $3 BBL.

Richmond, Va., June 29.—Nearly 1,000 Boy Scouts from Virginia cities who responded a week ago to a call for help to harvest the potato crop in the Eastern shore district, returned to their homes today with most of the harvest work still undone. Their withdrawal was decided on after Major General Bell, commanding the Eastern army department, had sent a representative to investigate reports of mistreatment at the hands of the truckers and after the truckers had decided temporarily to halt harvesting.

Scout officials last night minimized the reports of mistreatment, saying that the interruption of work was the actual consideration in the withdrawal. There was some hardship, they said, because of inadequate preparations for the boys' reception, but that was soon remedied. They declared glowing promises of big earnings were not fulfilled, however, even before the period of enforced idleness. The expenses of the expedition amounted to $1,500 and the wages paid totaled $496.

The order to quit work was circulated Wednesday, these officials said, by a producers' organization of which all the truckers are members. No explanation, it was said, was given for the action, although it apparently was caused by congestion in the big potato markets and a drop of $3 a barrel in price.

The withdrawal was decided on at a conference yesterday between Major Allen Fouts of the Virginia National Guard, who went to investigate for General Bell, and John Stewart Bryan, president of the Richmond scout council. Last night Mr. Bryan issued a statement charging that the truckers were paying negroes 20 and 25 cents a barrel for picking up potatoes while the scouts were given only 15 cents.

"Doubtless the farmers of the Eastern shore spoke in good faith," he said, "when they declared that boys could readily earn from $2.50 to $3 a day. Perhaps then can, but the farmers' own children do not attempt it for themselves, and they don't have to, for two counties raise 4,000,000 barrels of potatoes and sell them at $3 a barrel. It is the Eastern shore farmer and not the city dweller who is the plutocrat today."

GREEKS BREAK RELATIONS WITH CENTRAL POWERS

Venizelos at the Helm Acts Quickly After Abdication of King

(Associated Press Telegram)

Athens, June 29.—The Greek government has broken diplomatic relations with Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Greece's new course with regard to the war began to be shaped on June 12 with the abdication of King Constantine and the accession of Alexander, his second son, as king. The abdication was in effect a de facto declaration of Greece's attitude toward the war. The entente allies had given the entente endless trouble and threatened not only the success of the Saloniki expedition but its safety, through danger of back fire from a hostile Greek military force. Decisive action by the entente was long in coming but succeeded when drastic action was taken.

Elipheos Venizelos, Greece's leading statesman and steadfast friend of the entente, soon appeared as the man to take the leadership in guiding Greece back to her traditional place by the side of England, France and Serbia, the last her close ally whom she had abandoned under Constantine's coercion in Serbia's hour of greatest need.

Summoned back to the premiership by King Alexander, Venizelos quickly formed a cabinet. The reactionary elements have been ousted or quieted, the re-establishment of Greek constitutional government, virtually abolished by Constantine began. The parliament of May, 1915 which had been dissolved by Constantine would again be summoned to meet, was later indicated giving a legislative backing to the new executive power.

TEACHER MURDERED AND TWO ASSAULTED; MAN GIVES SELF UP

(Associated Press Telegram)

Laconia, N. H., June 29.—Miss Elizabeth Sues, assistant matron, and Miss Dorothy Davis, a teacher at the state school for feeble minded here were suffering today from wounds on the head and nervous shocks, received when their companion, Miss Alice Black Richards, head teacher at the school, was murdered in a cottage on the shore of Lake Winnepesaukee last night. Morris P. Bradford, who had been with the women and gave himself up to the police, is held at the police station and will be given a hearing today.

A hunting knife bearing a spot resembling blood was found in the cottage. According to the brief statements obtained from Miss Sues and Miss Davis, the three women, had accepted Bradford's invitation to go supper with him at the cottage which is on the school grounds. There Bradford attacked them, they declared. He bound all three, and Miss Alice Black Richards, the head teacher, struck the other two over the head and cut their hair off. Afterwards one of the young women managed to free herself and released her companion, but Miss Richards had succumbed to her wounds.

Had been doctoring with the doctor for that long and his medicine didn't do me a bit of good. I was getting worse all the time. Was so bad I could not sleep myself up in bed. Could not sleep or eat. But just as soon as I began taking the Nerv-Worth medicine I got so I could eat and sleep better and can get around the house better now. So I cannot recommend your medicine highly enough."

SHIP BUILDERS TO DISCUSS STRIKE OF 12,000 MEN

New York, June 29.—The executive board of District No. 15 of the International Association of Machinists met here today to consider the proposed strike of 12,000 shipbuilders in the New York and New Jersey district who are demanding an increase in wages of about 50 cents a day in all branches of their work. The shipbuilders have declined to meet the men or their representatives, saying the only question is the one of the recognition of the union. It was said that should a strike be called next Monday the government's ship-building plan would be seriously interfered with. It was said the representatives of all the machinists would instruct their committees to prepare for a general strike Monday unless the differences were adjusted before that time.

RENEW OLD FIGHT TO STOP PRINTING OF USELESS MATTER

Washington, June 29.—The old fight has been renewed to stop the practice of members of the house extending their remarks in the Congressional Record containing extraneous matter, such as poetry or the home-made variety, speeches by outsiders, telegrams and resolutions which annually swells the government's printing bill to thousands of dollars.

Representative Walsh of Massachusetts, who is behind the movement, said today that since the opening of congress 23 poems, 70 articles, 54 editorials, 26 speeches of outsiders, 169 letters and 723 telegrams have been inserted in the record by members. One member was responsible for 534 telegrams, occupying 19 pages of the record in one day, he said. Believing that such record never was intended for such purposes, Mr. Walsh declared henceforth he will object to the inclusion of everything not directly connected with debate.

NOTES ON TRIP BY NEWARK MEN IN PERRY COUNTY

The story of yesterday's successful trip taken through Perry county by nearly 100 Newark men was told in dispatches to this newspaper yesterday from Thornville, Glenford and Somerset. The same cordiality shown at these places was also manifested at Junction City and Shawnee. The trip is commented upon in the editorial columns of this issue.

The big gun orators of the occasion were Senator J. H. Miller, Geo. H. Mosser and Don D. Tullis. They all said just the right thing and did it well.

Charles Lauck as Uncle Sam made a hit all along the line.

Ralph Hutchinson combined business with pleasure. He left Thornville and Somerset with a pocketful of orders.

President Randolph Fountain of the Somerset Chamber of Commerce is a genius as toastmaster, though a trifle profuse in his bouquet, throwing in one instance yesterday.

A very graceful act at Somerset was the presentation to each Newark guest of a beautiful rose by Miss Minerva Huston.

Standing at the foot of the Sheridan monument, Senator J. H. Miller paid splendid and deserved tribute to gallant "little Phil."

Somerset sent a reception committee of six young men to meet the train and escort the visitors uptown.

Did you know that K. I. Dickerson could hold a job in a good band? He demonstrated the fact on his way up to Newark last night.

Mayor H. F. McGillis delivered the address of welcome at Shawnee and was very cordial to the visitors as were all of the people of Shawnee.

They burn Newark-made electricity all along the line as far as Shawnee.

Major Robert Davidson was one of the most dignified men in the party but then his son was with him and possibly that had something to do with it.

Every dry goods store in town was represented on the trip.

They have a live-wire mayor at Junction City in the person of Mr. T. C. Stevenson.

The wheat and corn look fine in Perry county, but there has been enough rain for the present, thank you.

That Somerset hill almost made Dave Murphy collapse, but it didn't.

They off the streets of Thornville and Somerset and the main thoroughfares of Shawnee and Junction City are paved with brick.

Henry Woodbridge was permitted to ride up that 45-degree grade at Junction City, but when Louis Ostrov tried it the boys pulled him out of the auto and made him hike with the rest of the crowd.

Mayor O. C. Jones felt very much at home at Thornport as his jurisdiction as mayor of Buckeye Lake extends to that point.

It was worth the price of admission to hear Will Miller, Fred Black, A. R. Lindorf and John J. Carroll sing the "Marseilles" on the way back. Mr. Miller's French was a bit rusty, but he was in fine voice.

One of the prettiest girls in Shawnee gave Abe Thomas a beautiful bouquet, but then who can blame her?

The day was ideal. Not a drop of rain fell till the party boarded the train at Shawnee for the return trip.

William Massey and Fleck Miller as Boy Scouts, and also Don Tullis, Jr., carried the flags at the head of the parade in each town.

The distance between Thornport and Thornville is said to be about a mile, but 90 of the 11 men in the party were ready to sweat at 10:30 yesterday morning that it is not less than four miles.

The Advocate noticed that the undertaker's name is "Helsler" at Somerset. Of course when people of Somerset die that's where they go, but possibly there are other undertakers there, too.

Thornville has given to the Red Cross $1200, which is $3 for every man, woman and child in town. Take off your hats to Thornville.

Dave Murphy didn't advertise his candidacy for mayor because the people of Perry county can't vote for him, but he made a hit with the Newark folks by his songs.

And the Buckeye band was there with both feet. The boys provided a good article of music as always.

J. R. Walters served in a dual capacity. He wore a brakeman's cap on the train and acted as grand marshal and official starter in the parade. He did a good job.

To be exact, the collection taken up for Harry Scott's new "lid" amounted to $2.58. Ralph Wreth solicited the funds, but A. Schiff made the selection and the presentation speech. A. B. Schawewer admired the design and wanted it so when the party reached Shawnee another hat and gown of crepe de chine or gingham or something was purchased and given to Mr. Scott.

The whole party is anxiously awaiting copies of the photographs taken of H. P. Scott in Shawnee.

George Hayden took advantage of the opportunity while in Shawnee of calling upon his son George, who is making good in the management of a big brick plant there.

Ex-Senator Wm. E. Miller made a neat little speech at Somerset. So did W. H. Mazey and Frank L. Johnson.

Co-operation, service, the Farmers' and Merchants' picnic July 26, the Licking County Fair in September, the new B. & O. train schedule on the Shawnee division—these were the high spots of the day's talks.

GRANVILLE'S 4TH PROGRAM KILLED BY COUNCIL VOTE

[Special to The Advocate]
Granville, July 29.—The village council last night clamped the lid on the proposed carnival and dance in Broadway on the night of the Fourth of July, a feature of the holiday program prepared by the business men. By a unanimous vote the council refused to grant permission for the use of the street for the dance on the theory that it was not showing proper respect to Denison University, according to the sentiment expressed during the meeting.

The action was taken despite the fact that practically all the business men favored the project, and that elaborate preparations had been made to stage the entertainment. It was to be patterned after the U. C. T. dance in Hudson, avenue, Newark, during the convention early in June.

Opinion is divided as to the wisdom of such a step at this particular time, although the members voted unanimously against it. The majority of the people however, are displeased with the action which will take the young people away from home, and keep other people away at a time when they contend, all should be united in booming "our town."

The committee in charge of the program this morning issued the following statement which was printed on handbills and spread broadcast over the village:

"The Fourth of July committee appeared before the Village Council on Thursday evening, June 28, and asked for the privilege of using the north end of Prospect street, to hold the masked carnival, the main feature of the day. The request was refused by a unanimous vote of the council."

"The various committees met Friday morning and decided to abandon all the exercises advertised for the day. Those who contributed money for this celebration will have their money returned to them."

Council awarded the contract for paving Pearl street to the Federal Asphalt company of Hamilton, O. work is to begin in three weeks and it is the expectation of the company to complete it in one month.

Only six people in all Granville township refused to contribute to the Red Cross campaign fund. Granville as well as the village council was in the banner class, with 156 per cent as its record.

Prof. C. W. Henderson, with his family, has gone to Syracuse, N. Y., where he has accepted a position in Syracuse University, as professor in the engineering department. Both Prof. and Mrs. Henderson will be greatly missed in the social circles of the village.

Miss Ruth Palmer, Mary Martin and Josephine Darrow have gone to Eaglesmere, Pa., to attend the Y. W. C. A. convocation at the Y. W. C. A. camp of Dayton, formerly of Granville, is acting as sergeant of Battery D, and is devoting all his time to government work. He is slated for second lieutenant, if he passes the federal examination. Other Denison men in Battery D, are Harold Kier, Robert Wilkinson, Schurman, Henry Stout, Lynne, Collett, Tilbe, Newton, Essex, Adair, and Stokes.

At the prayer service in the Baptist church Thursday evening, Rev. Thomas Moody, returned missionary from Africa, spoke of his recent visit to Camp Perry where among the 1200 men encamped there are a dozen or more Denison students. He deplored the lack of religious services of any sort of social diversion; of any place, however small, for a general rendezvous; the men have no place even to write a letter. Mr. Moody thinks it is time for thoughtful men to do something to improve such conditions.

Spencer Weber, '17 of Toledo spent Thursday night at the Beta House. He expects to spend the summer in graduate work in O. S. U., and possibly the whole of next year.

Mrs. A. W. St. Clair has returned to her home on Centerville street from a visit with her brother, F. L. White, in Columbus. While there she attended a recital given by the voice pupils of Mrs. Margaret Perry Hest, among whom were Miss Mabel Grace White, a niece of Mrs. St. Clair's.

Granville is starting another woman's organization, the Daughters of Veterans, in which already thirty-four have signed for a charter. It is felt by many that it is well to have some responsible organization ready to take up the work of the oration day, even before the boys in Blue are gone, and it is hoped that a good many may yet be heard from before the meeting Monday evening at 7:30 in The King's Daughters rooms. If you are a "daughter" or granddaughter, and wish to join the organization, notify Mrs. J. E. Sheppardson.

Miss Judith Nichol is at O. S. U. where she is taking the chemistry course in the summer school. Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Tilbe, who have been Granville residents for the past six years left on Wednesday for the Pacific coast, whence they are to sail for Burma, India, the field of their missionary labors.

Mrs. J. G. Ewart and daughter, Miss Elizabeth are in Hamilton, N. Y., for an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewart. Before returning to Granville they will stop for a time at Lake Chautauque.

It takes an optimist to figure out that no look is better than bad luck.

RUSS COMMANDER TELLS ROOT ARMY FIGHTS FOR LIBERTY

Petrograd, June 29.—Elhu Root, head of the American mission, and Foreign Minister Tereschenko returned to Petrograd yesterday after a brief visit to staff headquarters, where they were welcomed by General Brussloff, in the name of the Russian army which declared the commander-in-chief would continue with all the power at its disposal not only to fight for its own cause—that of fortifying liberty recently acquired—but at the same time hand-in-hand with America, to fight for the right of all nations to shape their destinies in accordance with their own desires.

Wednesday noon the mission lunched with General Brussloff and soon thereafter Major General Scott and aides, military members of the mission, escorted by Russian general staff officers, departed for Kiev. After a short tour of the southwestern front Major General Scott will go to Rumania and will greet the king and queen in the name of the mission and the American government.

DOZEN U-BOAT CRASERS ARE FINISHED IN JUNE

Washington, June 29.—Rapid progress is being made in the construction of the hundreds of submarine chasers recently ordered by the navy department. At the New York navy yard alone a dozen of the 110-foot wooden hulls have been completed already, although the original plans called for the production of only one during the month of June. In August the yards will begin to deliver hulls at the rate of three a day and keep that up until the big order has been filled. At the present time the engine production for the boats is a little behind schedule. Definite assurances have been received, however, that the engine-builders also will be ahead of schedule before August 1.

A considerable number of engines already has been completed and delivered. The navy department plans to distribute these among the navy yards and private constructors who are farthest advanced with their hull work. The New York navy yard has already completed entirely, including engines and armament, one of the new boats and it is under test for minor modifications which may be found necessary to make in later boats.

No decision has been reached as yet as to additional boats. With vessels purchased and those under construction, many officers believe there is enough supplied of this type of a larger boat, mounting heavier guns, a vessel of 160-foot length having been proposed.

VISIT TO PERRY COUNTY.

Newark's friendship making tour taken yesterday through Perry county under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce by nearly one hundred of the leading men of this city was a complete success from every viewpoint.

Plans had been made for an automobile trip through Thornville, Glenford, Somerset, Junction City and Shawnee, but the heavy rain of Wednesday made a machine ride over the hills of Perry county seem undesirable and rather than postpone the trip arrangements were quickly made to go by special train over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Notwithstanding the heavy downpour of rain a short time before the hour scheduled for the start the men responded and every one of them is today glad that the trip was made.

The sky cleared and not a drop of rain fell in Perry county until the very moment the party boarded the train for the return trip at Shawnee at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The trip was a success, in all respects, first because it was of benefit to those who composed the party, and in the second place because it gave the people of Perry county a better opinion of Newark.

There was a feeling that some might regard the enterprise as wholly commercial but Senator J. Henry Miller, Rev. Don D. Tullis and George H. Mosser in their several addresses along the line disabused all minds of such a notion. They told of the broader vision now entertained by Newark men. They spoke of the results of friendly co-operation between Newark and the rural districts of Licking county and of the feeling that the line between Licking and Perry counties is, purely imaginary, that the same cordial relations should exist between the people of Newark and the residents of the county lying to the south of us.

They took pains to explain that the first duty of the people whom they addressed was to be loyal to their own home merchants, but that in the purchase of merchandise which the home stores may not carry the merchants in their neighboring city should have consideration. This is a duty of co-operation, a day where service counts and he who serves best profits most.

The members of the party did no personal advertising but all took advantage of the opportunity to advertise Newark, to invite the people of Perry county to come to the third annual Farmers and Merchants Picnic to be held at Moundbuilders Park on July 26, to attend the Licking County Fair in September and also called attention to the new B. & O. time card which makes it more convenient for the people of our adjacent county to visit Newark and return to their homes the same day.

Everywhere the Newark men were cordially received. At Somerset a committee from the Chamber of Commerce extended a royal welcome, at Junction City the party was taken to the Chautauqua tent where Mayor Stevenson gave a splendid address of welcome. At Shawnee Mayor McGillis extended a word of welcome and escorted the party to the train upon the return trip while at Glenford Mr. M. F. Leckrone, banker and chairman of the Red Cross committee, delivered a ringing speech in which he spoke kindly of the visitors' welcome. At Thornville the same spirit of cordiality was manifest.

The several stops, the long walk from the station to and from Thornville and the ride over the entire Shawnee division of the B. & O. railroad gave the Newark men a good opportunity to observe conditions there. Everywhere was seen evidence of thrift, of prosperity, of fields in a flourishing condition, the manufacturing industries are humming, the people are all busy and apparently happy. Perry county is filled with fine folks who know how to do things and who know how to extend the glad hand to visitors.

The mayor of New Lexington telephoned to Somerset his invitation to visit the county seat but time would not permit and the citizens even sent a delegation to Junction City in automobiles to invite the Newark men to ride over to New Lexington.

Licking county has been patting itself upon the back over its splendid record in the Red Cross campaign but the Newark men found that Perry county too has been making something of a record by greatly exceeding the allotment established by the National Red Cross. The little town of Thornville, one of the cleanest and neatest villages in Ohio, for example has raised for the Red Cross more than $3 for every man, woman and child in town. Then too, Newark has taken no little pride in its large Chamber of Commerce membership but upon visiting Somerset it developed that every business and professional man in town is a member of the Somerset commercial organization and now they are thinking about enrolling the women.

Yes, it was a great trip. It was a fine thing for those who were in the party and it can not help but result in making new friends for Newark and Licking county. The Newark speaker carried a message worth while, a message on service and co-operation and friendship and the message everywhere was received in the same cordial spirit in which it was extended.

"There must be no peace excepting a lasting peace. The ideals for which the allies are contending must be held sacred."—General Pershing.

LYNCHING.

(Philadelphia Record.)

One of the great perils of the lynching habit as developed in some Southern States is revealed in a dispatch from Texas, which says that a colored man was hanged there by a mob on the charge of having driven an automobile which ran down and killed a young girl. If such views prevailed in Philadelphia or New York lynching bees would be a daily occurrence here. Not long ago an old negro in Mississippi was hanged by some white ruffians on the suspicion of having stolen a mule. It developed later that he was entirely innocent of this shocking accusation. One great trouble about lynching is that the habit grows on those who practice it. They justify their first violation of law in the ground that Southern women must be protected. From that it seems to be an easy gradation to the taking of the law into the hands of mobs for any trivial offenses. Of course, those men who hanged an innocent negro on the mere suspicion of having stolen a mule were themselves guilty of murder in the first degree, and in a civilized community should have been sent to the gallows. The Southern States that tolerate such barbarities fail to realize how they stand in their own light.

Did You Know That there are two classes of guns—naval guns and army or land guns? Because they can be manipulated more easily than those of a ship, land guns are the heavier. From eight to ten miles is the greatest distance that a gunner can cover successfully at sea. The largest naval gun is the 15-inch English gun on the famous superdreadnought, and the largest land gun is the German howitzer. Of the two the naval gun fires a shell weighing over a half a ton, while the other fires a projectile a ton in weight. But the new giant 16-inch guns of the United States defending the Panama Canal and New York at Sandy Hook shoot projectiles weighing 2,370 pounds, which is over a ton. These immense steel guns can sink a ship before it has really come into sight on the horizon, the location of the battle ship having been determined by airplane or tower.

How National Advertising Increases Dealers' Profits on a Decreased Investment

(Copyright—Mallory, Mitchell & Faust)

It is a matter of economy for dealers to handle nationally advertised products. It is ECONOMY from the standpoint of CAPITAL INVESTED in stock.

This is based upon the principle of CONSUMER ACCEPTANCE, which is created by the advertising. Inasmuch as the advertised brands are ACCEPTABLE to every class of trade, the dealer NEED sell only advertised brands.

This means that the MINIMUM OF CAPITAL is required for a sufficient stock of goods upon which to do business. A large amount of capital is not tied up in slow moving stock which is acceptable to only a PART of his trade. FEWER BRANDS PLEASE ALL CUSTOMERS.

When unadvertised products are handled, and even pushed by the dealer, it is still NECESSARY for him to carry SOME advertised brands to meet the demands of PART of his trade.

It is clearly a matter of economy to carry as few brands as possible in each line. This condition is brought about by the dealer handling that class of products acceptable to ALL.

Not only does specialization on brands acceptable to all mean less capital invested, but it means a greater return from a given amount of capital through an increased rapidity of turn-over.

For example, a dealer who can supply the demands of his trade with two advertised brands of baked beans will TURN HIS STOCK MORE OFTEN than that dealer who must carry several brands to supply the same quality of trade.

This means that every dollar will yield a return more frequently to the first dealer than to the latter.

It means TWICE AS GREAT AN INCOME from each dollar of capital.

Dealers are beginning to see that the MARGIN OF PROFIT on a single sale is not of as great consequence as the NUMBER OF TIMES they can make SALES FROM THE SAME DOLLAR.

It is better business to make a dollar yield a 20 per cent profit four times in a year than to have it yield a 25 per cent profit twice a year.

The advertised brands are clearly the most profitable products to handle.

CHILlicothe FARMERS BOOST PRICE FOR CAMP

Washington, June 29.—Rather than submit to holdup prices, the government may rescind its plan to establish an army cantonment at Chillicothe and select another site.

The war department is much exercised over the prospects that the owners of land chosen for the Chillicothe site are disposed to make Uncle Sam "come across" in a way that is regarded as entirely out of reason.

Representative Claypool yesterday asked Secretary of War Baker to use his influence to straighten out the difficulty. He then sent the following telegram to his son and law partner, Garrett S. Claypool, at Chillicothe:

"Information from Secretary Baker is that General Thomas H. Barry, Chicago, has full power in procuring realty for cantonment and that he thinks the owners of farms to be used want to hold him up. The remedy is for the owners to get down to a business proposition. A man will be sent, probably from Chicago or Washington, to investigate prices. It is up to the owners to make good."

Our Boys and Girls

Perhaps one of the sorest trial to the ordinary mother with a young child is the atrocious person who will caress the child one every time she sets eyes on it—or in other words the woman who will kiss young children is a real thorn in the mother's flesh.

The evil, of course, lies in this, that the mother cannot very well complain—did she do so the offense would surely be given; besides, she knows quite well that the erring person means no harm, but rather intends to be kind.

It may seem a trifle harsh to interfere with an elderly woman who, with the explanation, "Oh, what a pretty little dear!" bends over your child and kisses it tenderly; still, it is a duty to interfere and utterly prohibit such practice.

And if the elderly female is bad, the elderly man is worse, more especially if he is adorned with a huge beard.

But it is not this way alone that mothers are troubled by the actions of outsiders. For instance, there was a case lately where a mother received a gross abuse from one of two children when she asked any of them to go down the street to the grocery shop. She could not understand the reason for the children's impertinence and reluctance, to do as her bidding; but ultimately discovered the secret.

Everything is rising, so it's no wonder thermometers are going up.

Milady's Boudoir

To Achieve a Beautiful Foot.

Very low heeled footwear is inimical to the beauty of foot, instep and ankle. Woman's foot requires some support under the bones of the arch which are more delicately adjusted than the bones of a man's foot, so women should wear a moderately high heel on all her slippers, boots and boudoir mules from girlhood to old age, if she desires to retain an arch instep, a trim slender ankle, and a sprightly step.

Some women who are very proud of their feet never wear slippers at all out of their bedrooms or occasionally with a dinner gown. For walking, dancing and standing about in formal costume, button boots that support the ankle are donned, and the high buttoned boot now so fashionable comes in many fetching styles and colors. One may suit every need of the days occupation with correct and yet comfortable footwear.

The feet should be bathed in hot water at night and dipped in cold water in the morning, to keep the flesh firm and resistant. Feet padded only in hot water are apt to be soft and flabby, and easily acquire corns and callous flesh. Once a week rub the soles of the feet with a lemon. Then rub a little vaseline into the skin with the palms of the hands. Callous places should be kept down with a bit of fine sandpaper or a manicure file, but the foot treated to a dash of cold water once a day and rubbed with vaseline one lemon once a week will not be likely to acquire callous places.

The toes may be massaged at the tips to keep them tapering and supple, and the nails may be treated like the nails of the fingers, a bleach being applied with an orange stick under the rounded ends of the nails and the cuticle being pushed back carefully to preserve the curve at the base of the nail.

WHEN YOUR COLOR FADES

When a girl's color fades, when her cheeks and lips grow pale and she gets short of breath easily and her heart palpitates after slight exertion or under the least excitement it means that she is suffering from thin blood.

Headache and backache often accompany this condition and nervousness is frequently present.

The remedy, of course, is to build up the blood and for this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended. They are the remedy best suited to restore the blood, bring brightness to the eyes and put color in the cheeks and lips.

The only other treatment needed costs nothing. It is this. Give the patient plenty of sunlight, moderate exercise every day, not enough to cause fatigue, and use care in the diet because the food craved is often not the best for the condition.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," give just the information that every mother of a growing girl needs. They are free. Write for them today to The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be mailed postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

RUMANIAN JOINS CO. B; OTHERS MAY ENLIST THIS WEEK

The matter of enlistment and service in the United States army has reached a crisis, and but three days remain before the services of the men between 21 and 31 can be offered, or be taken through the completion of the conscription.

The Ohio National Guard needs 7,000 men and but three days remain to secure them. Company B opened headquarters in Newark again yesterday and every effort will be made to secure at least 23 men. Rumanians, members of the patriotic Rumanian society here, have been desirous of serving but up to yesterday it was not found to be permissible to enlist men who could not speak English. But this is now permitted and John Polar, 11 Case avenue who was the first accepted for enlistment yesterday, is not able to converse in the English language. With this provision removed it is thought that about 20 Rumanians will be secured in Newark.

Columbus is making a big enlistment campaign this week, and for every man enlisted in the county there will be one less selected in the selective draft, for up to Saturday night every enlisted man will be counted in the county's quota.

So the man who has no dependents, no determination to remain at home, can now serve doubly because his service may relieve one who can better serve by remaining at home.

The service affords the opportunity for adventure often sought for, and offers the chance to visit foreign countries. In other words it gives the chance to be on the spot where something is doing at the time when it is doing.

Among those who applied for enlistment yesterday were Othmer C. Hutchins, 74 High street, Harry P. Niles, 20 South Fourth street and John Polar 11 Case avenue.

ger maintain even a nominally or benevolent attitude towards the entente in the war were in evidence several days ago and recent despatches indicated that a formal breach between Greece and the Central Powers was imminent.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, June 29.—Telegraphing from Athens under today's date the correspondent of Le Temps says: "The Greek government has directed its minister to Switzerland, G. Caradja, to communicate to the Greek legations at Berlin, Vienna, Sofia and Constantinople instructing the ministers to break diplomatic relations between the Greek kingdom and the government of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey."

"The Greek ministers at these capitals are instructed to leave their posts with their staffs and to place their archives with the Netherlands legations."

"The rupture is based on the incompatibility of maintaining diplomatic relations with governments that are carrying on war in Greek territory."

STATE OFFICERS WATCH FOR SPEED LAW VIOLATORS

The new speed law is now in effect and tourists and auto-owners will use extra precautions in order not to violate any of its provisions. It is said that the state department has employed a large force of extra men to watch the various state highways, which include a number of thoroughfares throughout Licking county. The Granville and National roads will be thoroughly patrolled and any driver exceeding 25 miles an hour is liable to arrest. Any driver failing to stop in case of accident is also liable to prosecution. All vehicles on wheels, except those propelled by hand and hay wagons, must have a light one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise. The rays of which must be visible for a distance of 200 feet. The dimmer law requires lights and reflectors on all motor vehicles, within corporation limits, and while passing other vehicles, to be reduced so that the rays do not extend beyond a distance of 200 feet. This latter law becomes effective today.

CUT OUT EGG SHAMPOO TO SAVE MILLION EGGS WEEK

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, June 29.—Barbers should stop giving shampoos to customers in order to assist in conserving the food supply of the country. James D. Kimmerer, of South Bend, Ind., believes, and in support of the idea, he has collected statistics which he yesterday forwarded to Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator at Washington. Kimmerer says there are about 300,000 barbers in the United States and that they average two egg shampoos a week, with two eggs for each shampoo. This, he points out, means the use of 200,000 eggs a day or 1,200,000 a week.

SOCIALIST SPEAKS TO CROWD WHILE COPS HUNT FOR HIM

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, O., June 29.—C. E. Ruthenberg, secretary of the Cleveland Socialist party, and candidate for mayor, gave himself up to federal authorities here today, entered a plea of not guilty to a federal indictment charging him with interfering with registration on June 5, and was released on $3000 bail.

Ruthenberg said that while Chicago police and federal agents were searching that city for him under instructions from federal agents in Cleveland, he was making a speech in the public square at Cincinnati in a large crowd, including a score of Cincinnati policemen and several federal agents.

GERMANY WILLING FOR PEACE IF PAID FOR HER OWN SINS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Glasgow, June 29.—Premier Lloyd George, speaking at Glasgow today on the question of peace, said that in his judgment the war would come to an end when the entente armies had reached the aims which they had set out to attain when they accepted Germany's challenge. If the war ended a single minute before, he said, it would be the greatest disaster in the history of mankind.

"In my judgment the war will come to an end when the allied armies have reached the aims which they set out to attain when they accepted the challenge thrown down by Germany. As soon as these objectives have been reached and guaranteed this war will come to an end, but if the war comes to an end a single minute before it will be the greatest disaster that has ever befallen mankind."

"No doubt we can have peace now at a price. Germany wants peace—even Prussia ardently desires it. They said give us some indemnity for the wrongs we have done, just a little territory here and a little there and just a few privileges in other directions and we will clear out. We are told that if we are prepared to make peace now Germany will restore the independence of Belgium. But who has said so?"

"No German statesman has ever said he would restore the independence of Belgium. The German chancellor came very near to it but all the junkers fell on him and he received a sound box from the mailed fist."

"The only terms on which Germany has suggested restoring Belgium are not those of independence, but of vassalage. Then came the doctrine of the status quo and no annexation and no indemnities. No German statesman has accepted even that. No one wishes to dictate to the German people the form of government under which they should choose to live. But is it right we should say that we will enter into negotiations with a free government of Germany with a different attitude of mind and a different temper and different spirit and with less suspicion and more confidence than we should with a government with whom we feel today to be dominated by the aggressive and arrogant spirit of Prussian militarism."

"All the great governments will, in my judgment, act wisely if they draw that distinction in their general attitude toward the discussion of peace terms."

LET GENTRY BROTHERS' ELEPHANT USE MOWER ON YOUR FRONT LAWN

Does Friend Wife make you mow the lawn? If so, cheer up. There's help coming and lots of it for "Queen" most versatile of Gentry Brothers' Shows' herd of performing elephants, arrives in Newark Saturday, July 7.
Now, the best thing "Queen" does is mowing lawns and she is no amateur. In Fremont, this season, this gifted lady pachyderm got loose from her moorings in the Gentry menagerie tent one night and wandered into a neighbor's yard. There, she reached under a porch and pulled out husband's lawn mower.

AUDITORIUM.
"The Slave."
Being marooned in the snow-covered Swiss Alps for two days with an injured guide was one of the most memorable experiences in the youth of Ruth Thorpe, the William Fox player now appearing in "The Slave."
Miss Thorpe was 12 years old when her parents took her to the Alps. One day she set out with a guide and a party of tourists to scale the Matterhorn. When far up in the mountains she and the guide became separated from the rest of the party. To make matters worse the guide fell and broke both legs.
Miss Thorpe was marooned for two days. She subsisted during that time on a packet of chocolate.
The rest of the party discovered the absence after returning to the hotel, and sent out a searching party which rescued Miss Thorpe and the guide after they had suffered terribly from the cold.

"The Unwelcome Mother."
The story of a mysterious man, who falls in love with a girl he scarcely knows, and originates his own marriage ceremony, is told in William Fox's new photoplay, "The Unwelcome Mother." Walter Law, weight 223 pounds, chest measurement 42 inches, the part of the stranger, Mason. He is a man who is used to having his own way, and he will brook no interference. In this feature, Miss Suratt shows her claim to the title, the empress of fashion, and is seen in fifty odd gowns. None should miss her in this.

swims to the boat. He finds there a mother and little baby—but he is too late. The mother has died from the exposure. Peter rescues the child, adopts her, and raises her to womanhood. He calls her Ellnor.
The story is a daughter of the sea. She makes the ocean her constant companion, and passes the whole days swimming along the rock-hoisted coast near the light-house. On one of these trips she meets the man (Walter Law). He has seen her behind a rock, after he himself had taken a long swim to the shore from a ship in the bay, and he has followed her. The man exerts a strange influence over the girl as the two stand together on the beach. She does not know that he is on that shore as a fugitive from justice, that he had become embroiled in a fight with his captain the night before, and had been forced to kill the captain in self-defense. That was why he, Mason, had leaped from the ship's deck, and made his way to land.

Now the man and the girl stand together on the beach.
"Let us be married by the sea," he says. He takes a key ring from his pocket. From his hand he takes a finger-ring, and another from hers. He

For Sufferers Here.
Manager Geo. Fenberg of the Auditorium, always alive with new stunts, has another that he will offer at his cozy playhouse for the six days beginning next Monday, July 2nd. Next week holding the holiday, July 4th, which this year perhaps will be the most patriotic Fourth that we have ever seen, he will offer to all citizens of Newark or county, liable under the draft law, who present their registration card and are accompanied by one paid admission, admission free to any screening during the entire week. In other words a registration "stiff ticket" admits two for one fare. Special programs for the entire week are being arranged and among some of the pictures to be seen are the following:

Sore Corns Vanish, Painful Foot Lumps, Too
Who would suffer a minute after hearing that Putnam's Corn Extractor does the trick so neatly, so quickly?
Out comes the corn, no scar left, no pain to bear—it's a magical, wonderful remedy, and is as represented. Sold everywhere in 25c bottles. Get it to-day—tomorrow you're well. Refuse any substitute.

Monday and Tuesday, "Give Becky a Chance," with Vivian Martin, also Max Linder in the two reel comedy, "Max in a Taxi." Wednesday and Thursday, "The World Apart," with Wallace Lilled and Myrtle Stedman, together with "A Rough House," the third of his own comedies at the head of his own producing company. Friday and Saturday the William Fox feature, "The Broadway Sport," with Stuart Holmes will be seen. "Patricia" with Mrs. Vernon Castle on Wednesday, Katie Novak on Thursday and Saturday are extra added features.
Charles Flagler, a singer with some voice is the Auditorium attraction to-day together with Valeska Suratt in "The Slave." Mr. Flagler will be here three days, changing his numbers every day.

"Max in a Taxi."
Linder's best.
Max Linder's third Essanay comedy, is now sweeping the country with a whirlwind of laughter. Without doubt "Max in a Taxi" is the best work of the noted European comedian career. Exhibitors and critics who have viewed it agree on this statement, and it is further proven by the fact that theaters running "Max in a Taxi" are doing capacity business for all shows. It will be seen at the Auditorium next Monday and Tuesday.
This comedy, which runs on the screen for thirty minutes, introduces a decided novel idea, and is replete with laughable thrills. Max gets on a little "bun" in celebration of his birthday. He and his friends find a cab here and there, and Max, who is "never again to darken his door." Cut off thus without a penny, Max tries to hang himself, and then won't break. Then Max lies down in front of an onrushing express train. The engine reaches within a few feet of Max's neck, then suddenly switches on to another track. Max finds he cannot go. He goes to an exclusive ball, instead of home, and his mother, who is his dream, she invites her and her mother for a taxi ride, but the machine gets out of order and won't break. Breathlessly they plunge down a hill, and wind up with a terrific explosion against a telegraph pole. The girl and her mother are buried beneath the wreckage. Max is hurled high into the air, and escapes death by lighting on some telegraph wires. The women, who have been uninjured in the accident, stand one on the other's shoulders, and onto the human stepladder Max alights from his perilous position. The comedy ends with Max, his girl, and her mother, latter a fat lady—doing a somersault to the ground—and bowing gracefully.

ALHAMBRA.
SUNDAY.
Bryant Washburn, Essanay star, now appearing in "Stuntin' Bubble," is going to deliver an address on motion picture acting before a bevy of five hundred pretty girls. Any man might well become terrorized at such a prospect. However, when a committee of beauties, representing a big Chicago seminary, called personally at the Essanay studios to extend the invitation to Mr. Washburn, what else could he do but accept?
"It will be the first time I ever faced such a large congregation of my pretty photograph friends," exclaims the actor. Mr. Washburn said, "I am hoping I come out of it all right."

Tonight and Tomorrow.
Viola Dana, star of the Metro-Columbia feature production, "God's Law and Man's," directed by John H. Collins, has added to her native talent by a study of every part in which she has played.

GUNNERS OF NAVY SHATTER TARGETS

Report Shows Steady Improvement in Marksmanship.

ARE READY FOR THE ENEMY

Admiral Mayo, Commander in Chief, Praaises Spirit and Loyalty of Officers and Crews—Many Ships Are Now on Active Duty, but Time Is Taken For Practice.

Improvement in marksmanship of the navy is reported by Admiral Henry T. Mayo, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet. The report to Secretary Daniels summarized is:
Marked increase in the rapidity of fire and a reasonably satisfactory increase in accuracy.
Progress in the ability and confidence of the personnel to prepare for, maintain and control the fire of the different batteries under varying conditions.
The following extracts from the reports show the efforts which have been made and are being made to improve the battle efficiency of the fleet:
"More seems to have been accomplished during the last gunnery year than ever before with less effort, which stands to prove that present methods, while not complete or perfect, are fundamentally sound."
"The fleet during the last year has passed through the usual experience and conditions of a gunnery year, although on the whole it must be said that conditions affecting gunnery training have materially improved."
"It is impossible to allow uninterrupted periods of training for target practice at a time when vessels may be ready for an instant's call to go into action, and if a vessel is kept in training, with a full realization of such conditions, she will be ready to go into target practice at any time without fear of poor performance. Excellent training can be had when passing lights, buoys or vessels at sea."
Destroyers Dangerous Factors.
"The training that torpedo officers have derived from the work on the Montana is being strongly felt in the fleet, and the time has now arrived when destroyers have become dangerous factors to the enemy fleet in day as well as night engagements."
"In the opinion of the umpires the practice was conducted in a highly creditable manner, considering the small number of officers available and the duty performed by the ship as a repair and base ship, which necessarily limits the time used for gunnery training."

"The first aim of short range practice is to train officers; the second, gun captains and turret captains; the third, pointers; the fourth, the crews, and the fifth, to perfect the material. All but the third can be done in smooth water."
"Day individual practice is merely an exercise of battle procedure, in which ammunition is limited and the ship hedged short, with certain other restrictions, none of which, however, interfere in the slightest with ordinary battle procedure."
"Day action procedure is well standardized now, and it is a pleasure to invite another ship during a major caliber fire patrol drill and be able to tell what she is doing without asking countless questions."
"The check telescope makes training more interesting, due to the final merit obtainable on rehearsals. It is also instructing, as the officers get familiar with the returns and computations during training periods."
"Cruising pointing is done on a target on another ship, and the force and division commanders make it a point to give every ship opportunity for pointing."
"The gun captains were utilized to a marked degree in training the other units of their crew, and the work was very efficient."
"The commander in chief has watched with great pleasure the steady growth in the efficiency of the fleet, and he takes this opportunity of extending to the officers and men of the fleet his appreciation of their loyal support and assistance, and he is confident that the entire fleet will be ready in the near future to render valuable service on the scene of active operations in the same spirit as these units of the fleet which already have responded quickly and effectively to the sudden call for active service against the enemy."

STEPS TO GUARD CANAL.
Restricted Area Laid Down For Boats of All Kinds.
Officials of the Panama canal zone are taking no chances in their precautions to protect the approaches of the big waterway from possible enemy activities. Regulations issued by the captain of the port of Balboa governing admittance to that harbor say that all boats, large or small, whether regularly used for fishing or any other purpose, are prohibited from entering or remaining in a wide restricted area embracing the mouth of the harbor, except by special permit.
"Boats entering this area in violation of the above," the notification adds, "are liable to be fired upon."
The instructions were issued under the president's proclamation defining defense areas.

ROOTS AND BARK
ANCIENT REMEDY

Our Grandfathers Used Them
In Crude Form.

Our grandfathers and great-grandfathers knew the medicinal values of roots, barks, flowers and berries. Their medicinal qualities are the same now as they were a hundred years ago, but the scientific process of treating them has been improved.

In former times herbs were brewed into teas. Today modern laboratories make a vastly superior product. Taniac is a preparation of roots, barks and berries subjected to a process that extracts their medicinal virtues in concentrated form. It is especially designed to build up run down people. It has helped thousands of people who were suffering from disordered stomach, liver and kidneys.

Sylvester Dase, R. F. D. No. 2, Newark is only one of the thousands who have come out publicly and endorsed Taniac. Here is what he has to say about this wonderful tonic:

"I feel like a new man since I have been taking Taniac. Before I took it, however, I had trouble with my stomach. After eating I got drowsy and didn't have any ambition. Gas formed in my stomach and made me feel half sick. I often had headaches and got so dizzy at times that I thought I would fall.

"I didn't sleep well and felt tired all day. I didn't feel like doing anything. But now, thanks to Taniac, that condition is changed. I can eat what I want without bad after effects, and I sleep soundly, too. I get up rested and refreshed and don't have dizzy spells during the day. I am glad to tell what Taniac has done for me."

Get Taniac today!

Taniac may be obtained in Newark at Erman's Arcade drug store; in Hebron at Hebron Drug Co.; in Alexandria at C. M. Gilmore's; in Pataskala at J. R. Strine's; in Granville at W. P. Ullman's.

HOOVER TELLS OF
RED CROSS WORK

Nation Comes to Rescue In Subscribing to Funds.

FRANCE NEEDS OUR HELP

Civilian Population In Reconquered Territory Left Absolutely Without Food or Homes by the Retreating Germans—Will Cost Over a Billion Dollars to Restore Their Homes.

The people of the United States showed their patriotism when they so greatly oversubscribed the Liberty loan. Likewise in the appeal for $100,000,000 for the Red Cross the people of this nation responded gallantly.

The Red Cross is the humanitarian side of warfare. It is just as necessary to have a good Red Cross organization as it is to have efficient fighting forces. In this connection the following statement made before the Red Cross chapters in Washington recently by Herbert C. Hoover, who has charge of the food supply of this country, is interesting:

"For nearly three years we had as one of our duties the care of the civilian population in northern France. We are, I think, the only Americans who have been in intimate contact or even in any contact with that imprisoned population. I think we are the only group who know of their suffering, of their misery, of their destruction, and who know of what confronts those people even after peace. We have always entertained the hope that possibly this or some other agency, some other organization, might be found that could bind up their wounds and take in hand their difficulties, rehabilitate them into a position again of self support.

"There is probably the greatest problem of all the war. There is an untold destruction of property, a total displacement of population, an enormous loss of human life, a loss of man power, a loss of animals, a loss of implements—a population of probably 3,000,000 of people totally and absolutely unable to get back on their feet without help.

"About the end of March the retreat of the German army over a small area opened up to the world a vision of what had really happened to the total of 3,000,000. It was but a little parcel in France that was recovered, with a population of only 30,000 people. But there was displayed the problem which confronts all of us partially today, but in a much greater measure at a later date.

"I had visited that area from behind the lines and again visited it from the allied side. I found that every village, with the exception of two small areas, had been utterly destroyed. The Germans had erected battering rams, had destroyed and burned villages, had leveled everything to the ground, had gathered up all the agriculture implements in open squares and burned them; had taken all animals and had removed all the male portion of the population between the ages of eighteen and sixty-five years.

"That is only one of the problems of France. That is but a sample of what we have to expect from practically the entire area. The cost of rehabilitation runs into figures which should startle all except Americans and perhaps Americans even in the large figures in which we have begun to think.

"I made a rough estimate of the immediate amount of money required to rehabilitate that little parcel of population. To support them for one year, to provide them with their implements, to give them the roughest kind of housing, to get them back to the point where they may get the land into cultivation and get into self support, would run somewhere from seven to ten millions of dollars. Altogether the north of France is probably faced with a total expenditure for rehabilitation which will run a billion and a half dollars.

"There is still a further field in France, and that is the children. The orphans of France increase day by day. That service is one which probably touches more nearly to the heart of every American than any other.

"The Red Cross is perhaps founded fundamentally for the care and comfort of soldiers, but we are not fighting this war alone for the direct efficiency of battle. We are fighting here for infinitely greater objectives, and there is no support that can be given to the American ideal, to the American objective of this war, better and greater than a proper organization of that side of our civilization which we believe is today imperiled. We are fighting against an enemy who had become dominated with a philosophy, with an idea for which there is no room in this world with us. It is a nation obsessed with the single idea that survival of the strong warrants any action, demands any submergence of the individual to the state, which justifies their mastery of the world.

"Our contention of civilization lies in the tempering of the struggle for existence by the care of the helpless. The survival of the strong, the development of the individual, must be tempered, or else we return 2,000 years in our civilization. While the Red Cross devotes itself to the strengthening of the strong, to the support of the soldier, it is a duty of the Red Cross to blame that part of American character and American ideal which stands for the care of the helpless."

WHALE STEAK THE LATEST;
IT'S PALATABLE AND CHEAP

Department of Fisheries Says It Offers Chance to Wallop the High Cost of Living.

Fried whale steak, whale pot roast and whale in any other forms which chefs may devise may soon make an appearance on the menu cards if the people of the east can adapt their tastes to whale meat as easily as do persons along certain parts of the Pacific coast.

So sure is the department of fisheries that whale meat is palatable that a campaign is to be started to educate the American people to its use. The meat can be sold at a low rate and will afford a means of reducing the high cost of living.

The department of fisheries was first attracted to the possibilities of whale meat by a whaling company which placed the meat on the market in Seattle and Portland, Ore., last month. Two employees of the department of fisheries were in a restaurant on the coast and saw on the menu "Sperm whale steak and currant jelly." Inquiries were made, and it was found that there was a tremendous demand for it. The whale meat, it was said, cost 10 cents a pound, and there were indications that it was as popular as beef.

"There is evidence," says the bureau of fisheries, "of great interest in this matter by whale fishermen on both coasts, and it would not be surprising if within a short time the meat of whales and smaller cetaceans in both fresh and preserved form should be in demand and extensively utilized."

"Whales and porpoises are mammals, like cattle and sheep, and their flesh is meat and not fish. In texture and appearance, it resembles beef, though the color is darker red. The flavor is close to that of meat. It is devoid of all fishy taste. It is likely that it will soon be obtainable fresh, corned and canned, and it is recommended to those who have the opportunity to purchase it.

"Whaling on the Atlantic side, once the greatest whaling region, has declined greatly, but there are still some whales taken. There is no difference in the food value of the Atlantic and Pacific whales."

DIDN'T THINK QUICK ENOUGH.

How General Joffre's Aid Failed to Take Advantage of Situation.

Before introducing Lieutenant de Tesson, aid to General Joffre, and Colonel Fabry, the "Blue Devil of France," Chairman Spencer of the St. Louis committee entertaining the British mission told this anecdote:

"In Washington Lieutenant de Tesson was approached by a pretty American girl, who said:

"And did you kill a German soldier?"

"Yes," he replied.

"With what hand did you do it?" she inquired.

"With this right hand," he said.

"And then the pretty American girl seized his right hand and kissed it. Colonel Fabry stood near by. He tossed over and said to Lieutenant de Tesson:

"Heaven, man, why didn't you tell her that you bit him to death?"

Does the Country
Want Food-Control?

The wolf is at the door of the world, so Mr. Hoover reminds us, and he would meet it with the Food-Control Bill that aims to reduce the cost of living for ourselves, and to bring victory nearer by feeding our Allies.

"In the last five months," says Mr. Hoover, "$250,000,000.00 has been extracted from the American consumer in excess of normal profits of manufacturers and distributors." As evidence that the unprecedentedly high prices of food are largely due to "rampant speculation," he points out that "the average prices to the consumers in countries where food administration is now in effect, are lower than those prevailing in the United States, altho those countries are mainly dependent upon us for their supply."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for June 30th, this most important subject to the American public is presented in all its ramifications. THE DIGEST telegraphed to newspaper editors in every section of the country asking for an expression of the local sentiment as to the Food-Control Bill, and the results of this investigation are shown. Ottawa, Ont., June 23.—The declaration that a general strike of organized labor in Canada will be called if the government attempts to apply conscription without first obtaining authority from the people was made in parliament last night by Alphonse - Verville, who represents the district of Maisonneuve, east of the city of Montreal. He is the only labor member of the Canadian house and for many years was president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress.

Mr. Verville declared that, in striking, Canadian labor would have the support of organized labor in the United States, although there was no general strike there. The announcement was made in a speech on the government compulsory service bill.

London, June 29.—The Elder Dempster steamer Addah was torpedoed without warning and sunk by a German submarine on June 15. The submarine fired on the captain's boat, killing eight men.

The submarine fired on the master's boat from a distance of between 300 and 400 yards. The shot took the boat's stern completely off. When the submarine continued firing while the men were swimming about, it fired also on the chief officer's boat, which was pierced by a shell, but nobody was killed. Although some of the slighter wounded, all the survivors were picked up by a French steamer at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of June 16.

MUZZLED PRESS MAY MEAN PLAN FOR EARLY PEACE

tion on a front of more than a mile.
Closer to Lens, on a wide front south of the Souchez river, the British continue to gain ground. They have entered Avion within two miles of Lens, thus drawing considerably tighter the lines immediately about the coal town. To the north of Lens, near Loos, the British raiders are active, indicating that a further forward movement may be expected on this flank.

The Germans have been manifesting renewed activity there and last night they delivered a powerful attack, after a heavy bombardment, on a front of a little more than a mile near the famous Hill 304, northwest of Verdun. They gained a footing on some points in the French first line, but were completely repulsed when they renewed their attack early this morning. The crown prince also attacked in the Aisne district, notably in the Cerny region where his troops obtained a foothold in the French trenches, but were driven out by an energetic counter attack. The French positions, here as elsewhere on this front, were maintained.

Greece, under the new Zeneloso government, seems near the point of actively entering the war on the side of her entente friends. Athens dispatches say that the Greek government considers that a state of war exists. The recall of the Greek diplomatic representatives to the central powers is considered imminent.

BRITISH ATTACK BRILLIANT.
(Associated Press Telegram)
British Headquarters in France, June 29.—The fighting is more intense in the vicinity of Lens.

The British made a heavy attack
last night, during a blinding rain that accompanied a thunderstorm, on a number of the southwesterly suburbs of the great mining city, including the one known as Avion. All the first objectives of the attack were gained and the indications are that the British are still pushing forward today.

Nearly 200 prisoners already have been collected in the cages and more captives are reported on the way back from the fighting front. A number of machine guns also are reported taken.

The fighting took place in and out among bits of ruined buildings, colleries, pit derricks and the usual liter and paraphernalia of a mining settlement, only in this case the tangle had been made greater by the shell fire of many months.

The bombardment which preceded the attack was carried out on a fairly wide front, and was of but slightly less intensity than that which has preceded some of the greater actions on the British front.

GERMANS CLAIM SUCCESS.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, June 29, via London.—
German forces yesterday captured French positions on both sides of the Malancourt-Esnes road, on the west bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun sector, over a width of 2,000 yards and a depth of 500 yards, says the official statement issued today by the German staff. The Germans stormed a 300 yard wide French position in Avoncourt Wood. More than 550 prisoners were taken at both points.

THE FRENCH VERSION.
Paris, June 29.—Picked German troops made a heavy attack last night on the Verdun front near Hill 304 and Avoncourt Wood after spectacular shelling. Today's official statement says the attack was disorganized by the sharp reply of the French artillery and that the Germans obtained a footing at only a few points in the first line.

OHIO OPERATORS
AGREE TO PRICES
FIXED BY BOARD

that the big lake supply of coal will be handled by September 1, so that attention can be turned to furnishing the domestic demands which will bring relief at a period of the year when the demand is very heavy.

Attitude of those state officials who have been closely connected with or watching the fuel situation has undergone a material change in the last ten days and today's session was featured by a more optimistic view of conditions. This was perhaps best indicated in a statement yesterday by Attorney General Mc-Ghee, who took part in the Washington conference, who predicted there will be plenty of coal this winter and that prices will begin to fall after 30 days, with cuts of from $1.50 to $2.50 by the first of August.

MOBILIZE BOYS FOR WAR
TIME LABOR IS NEW PLAN

Washington, June 29.—War time mobilization of the boy labor of the nation is the purpose of two day convention of the United States Boys' Working Reserve which opened in the offices of the Council of National Defense here today. The vast labor shortage, which it is believed will ensue when conscription goes into effect, is hoped to be partially offset by the utilization of America's youth in agriculture and the industries.

FRENCH LOSSES REDUCED.
Paris, June 29.—Two French merchants of more than 1600 tons and three of less than that size, were sunk by submarines or mines in the week ending June 24, according to the weekly announcement issued here today. In that time there were 1088 arrivals at French ports and 969 sailings.

BROTHER OF FORMER GREEK KING TO WED AMERICAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, June 29.—Special dispatches from Athens says "Prince Christopher, brother of former King Constantine of Greece, is coming to London to marry a rich American woman. The Daily Chronicle gives the name of Miss Lite without details to her identity.

The prince, who is 29 years old,
and an ex-sub-lieutenant of the Grecian infantry, has twice been reported engaged, each time to a wealthy American woman.

MAY MODIFY LAW
TO PERMIT BEER
AND LIGHT WINE

their manufacture is necessary or desirable.

Postmaster General Burleson, who often represents the president in confering with congressmen, went to the capitol today and urged several senate leaders to modify the bill to permit manufacture of beer and wines. The postmaster general was said to have told senators the president does not desire to disturb or divide public sentiment during the war by cutting off consumption of light alcoholic beverages in general use and that such action is unnecessary as it would conserve comparatively small supplies of foodstuffs.
The provision to stop manufacture of distilled spirits, Mr. Burleson told senators, was not objectionable to the president.

Some of the senate leaders later expressed increased confidence that the prohibition sections would be modified so as to permit beer and wine manufacture to continue and that prohibition of distilled spirits would be adopted.

After returning to the capitol from the "White House," Senator Gerry, who favors brewing and wine-making and stopping distilling, said he believed the president "would exercise sound judgment on the whole prohibition issue."

To bring the prohibition fight to a head, and possibly dispose of the bill tomorrow, the leaders considered having Chairman Simmons of the finance committee, offer as a substitute for the prohibition sections the finance committee's provisions in the war-tax bill for prohibitive taxes upon distilled beverages and increased taxes on malt and vinous beverages.

The efforts to expedite the bill the leaders also discussed a plan to hold the senate in continuous session tonight in the hope of a final vote tomorrow.

As a last plan to prevent delay,
leaders said the prohibition faction would be asked to consent to elimination of all the prohibition legislation from the measures and leave it to be dealt with later, either separately or by prohibitive taxes in the war-tax bill.

The first food bill, the one for conserving the supply and containing measures to stimulate production, which has passed both houses of congress, went to conference today for adjustment of amendments.

After sending the bill to conference the house agreed to a series of three-day recesses until July 9.

HOGS FURNISH QUICKEST
FOOD SUPPLY SAYS EXPERT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 29.—The praises of the hog as a meat producing animal are sung by the department of agriculture in an appeal today to farmers to raise hogs, hogs and still more hogs as the quickest and surest way of increasing the nation's meat supply.

PIN MEDAL ON WHITLOCK.
Washington, June 29.—President Wilson today asked congress to pass a law to permit Brand Whitlock, America minister to Belgium, to accept a decoration in recognition of his marked service to the little kingdom. Decoration of any American official without sanction of congress is prohibited by law.

KING OF HOBOES VISITS WAR ZONE BUT NEGLECTS TO SECURE ANY PASSPORT

Jeff Davis, "king of hobo", and went on into Germany where, he says, he was not molested or questioned. Davis has gained much publicity through his care of the men of the hobo class at his "Hotel de Gink." "I've seen the dark sides of the hobo life," he says, "and I am trying to cheer up the men who have been 'broken' by their wandering and trying to persuade the youngsters to shun the life."

He goes to Columbus tomorrow where he expects to see Governor Cox, and later will go to Cincinnati, his home.

He says he has made a fortune in war stock after having been given a lift by a wealthy friend who "took a shine" to him.

ENLIST IN COMPANY B AND AVOID DRAFT; FIGHT KAISER UNDER TRAINED OFFICERS

Uncle Sam's regulars are now in France. They have gone over to fight for the freedom of all people. Do you want them to bear the burden alone and receive the plaudits of the world for helping to suppress the German autocracy?

It is an accepted fact that national guard troops will be next to go. Ohio's full division owing to its higher standing among the government's military experts, will be among the first of the state units to be sent to French soil.

Company B, Fourth Ohio Infantry is making a special effort to fill its gaps before the end of this month. Its officers, equipped with the experience of actual campaigning, are men of intelligence and judgment, such men as you would be proud to fight under.

Enlist now at the recruiting booth, Third and South Park. The draft comes in a few days and you may be taken and assigned to a branch you do not like. ENLIST NOW.

FRENCH PEOPLE ASK HELP FOR MONUMENT TO SCHOOLMASTERS

French people have started a movement for the erection of a monument to the schoolmasters of France who have fallen on the battlefields and the aid of American people is sought to finance the movement, according to a letter received this morning by Mayor Bigbee from Mars Vallet, general secretary of the committee in charge of the solicitation of subscriptions. The letter is accompanied by a communication in French addressed to "Monsieur le Maire" and "Messieurs les Conseillers Municipaux," but Mayor Bigbee was unable to translate it, as his French has grown a bit rusty since he studied the language in the "little red schoolhouse." He probably will call upon "Monsieur le Maire" Karb of Columbus, who has established a reputation as a French linguist since he addressed, in their native tongue, General Joffre and Mr. Viviani in Columbus a few weeks ago.

Subscriptions to this fund may be sent to M. Lucien Chiron, treasurer, president du Tribunal de Commerce au Musee de Chambéry, France.

70 FOOT POLE AT WHITE FIELD FOR JULY 4TH

Newark's celebration of the Glorious Fourth is to take place next Wednesday afternoon at White athletic field.

Headed by the Buckeye band the parade will form at Memorial Auditorium and march to White field at 1:30 o'clock. The Old Guard and the Boy Scouts have promised to be in line and the Spanish war veterans, the 1917 registered men, the Rumanians and all other organizations that desire to enter the parade are cordially invited.

At White field Mayor Bigbee will introduce the chairman of the day, Hon. William E. Miller. With an appropriate program of band music and songs the flag will be raised and accepted by Supt. Hawkins, after which Rev. Lewis P. Franklin will deliver the patriotic address of the day.

O. D. Hollar and Phil Vogelmeier promise that the new 70 foot flag pole will be erected in time for the ceremony and a large American flag has been ordered for the occasion.

FIREMAN JUMPED WHEN ENGINE HIT STANDING TRAIN

Stanley C. Potts, Baltimore & Ohio fireman, who lives at 58 North Front street was injured at 11 o'clock last night in East Columbus, when he jumped from the cab of an engine as it crashed into a standing freight train. His left hand and his knee were bruised and scratched. The wounds were bandaged in Columbus, and he was brought home on the 3:35 train this morning. Crisis Bros. ambulance met the train and took the man home.

Mr. Potts is recovering nicely under the attendance of Dr. Shairer.

RICHARDS WILL SING AT SPECIAL ELK MEET

Notices of a special election have been received by members of the Elk lodge for Tuesday, July 3, which will be followed by a social session at which time Jack Richards of the Al G. Field minstrel, will render a number of the latest patriotic and popular songs. He will be accompanied by Geo. M. Fehner, manager of the Auditorium theatre. Mr. Richards is acknowledged to be one of the finest tenor singers in the American stage today. Plans will also be made at the meeting for a number of interesting events throughout the summer and fall.

MOOSE CARNIVAL TO CLOSE ON SATURDAY

Two more nights of the Rutherford local shows for the benefit of the local order of Moose, will be given on the Jefferson street exhibition grounds. There was a goodly attendance last night in spite of the very inclement weather. All the shows were opened and the riding devices all received due attention. Tomorrow will be the closing day.

Take your medicine. The fellow who yells the loudest for the peace-maker is the one who is getting ficked.

Liberty Township Man For Recorder

NOAH H. OVERTURF

Recently appointed county recorder by the board of commissioners, to take the office which would have been assumed by the late Frank B. Dudgeon the first Monday in September. Mr. Overturf is a Liberty township farmer one of the active young Democrats of the county and amply qualified to fill the position to which he has been appointed. He will probably remove to this city with his wife and daughter in the near future.

COUNTY AND CITY DRAFT LIST WILL EACH BE NUMBERED

Instructions were received from Columbus last evening by the local conscription board to number the registration cards in triplicate, sending one to the provost marshal general at Washington, one to the adjutant general of Ohio, and keep one for reference. Lists of the men must also be completed, all within three days. The board will call upon citizens here for clerical help to assist in numbering the cards.

Newark city and township is to be known as the second district of Licking county. The registration cards will be divided between the districts and numbering in each district will begin with "No. 1."

New appointment of the board was received from President Wilson together with a new oath of office. The board met this morning to qualify and then to proceed with the work.

The drawing for the new national army will be conducted at Washington and not by county boards, and as soon as local draft boards furnish the provost marshal general's office at Washington with numbers representing the men registered. The drawing probably will take place in Washington July 5, next Thursday.

This plan is to have the drawing take place in the presence of the two military committees of the house and senate and other federal officials, and possibly governors of the various states will be invited to attend.

A total of 1,260,000 will be drawn for military service. This will be done on the theory that for physical and other reasons upwards of one-half of this number will be exempted.

The question of exemption will not come up until after the drawing has taken place.

The numbers of the men will be placed in the "lottery box" for drawing. When the numbers drawn are returned to the local boards then it will be known who have been drawn for military duty.

UTICA MARSHAL FIRES AT THIEVES IN STOLEN AUTO

A Buick six-cylinder machine was stolen last night while standing on the street in Homer. The thieves reached Utica safely but were met there by the town marshal who had been notified by the irate owner to stop them. He fired several shots at the thieves who turned and fled back toward Homer pursued by the constable. The machine has not yet been recovered. The theft of the Buick is only one in a chain of auto robberies perpetrated recently. The authorities are endeavoring to break up the gang of thieves and recover the stolen automobiles.

Baldness may not necessarily denote genius, but a full head of hair covers many an empty head.

Even when the door to success looms up before them, some fellows can't find the keyhole.
